

NEWSLETTER FOR OCTOBER 15, 2009

Feast of St. Teresa of Avila

Catholic Festival of Faith: We will not have school tomorrow, since the faculty will be attending the Catholic Festival of Faith in Rosemont. The Festival will continue all day Saturday, and all Catholics of the Archdiocese are welcome to attend the sessions and closing Mass. If you would like information, call 312-534-3100.

Parking Lot: Please follow the procedures on the Parking Lot both before and after school. Do not park on the west side of Dixie Highway or directly in front of school. In the morning, if you actually park, please do not cut into the “drop-off” lanes when you are ready to leave. We want to keep everyone safe. Thank you for your cooperation.

October Tuition Payments were due by today: Please include the $25 late fee when you send your payment next week.

H1N1 Flu Information: The Cook County Department of Public Health has suggested that all schools, public and private, be centers for the H1N1 Vaccinations. We will offer the vaccinations here at St. Joseph, and will send you complete details and permission slips/waivers as soon as they become available. In the meantime, remind your child to wash his hands often, to sneeze or cough “into his sleeve” and to flush the toilet when finished. If a child has a fever, you must keep the child home for 24 hours after the fever has broken. Please make sure we have up-dated phone information here at school.

St. Joseph School Advisory Committee Meeting: Tonight at 7:00 p.m. in the Rectory. We will be hearing from a Tuition Collection Company. Interested parents are welcome to attend.

Parish Pancake Breakfast: The Parish will serve a Pancake Breakfast this Sunday, October 18, from 8-11:30 a.m. See the enclosed flyer for more information.

Day of Non-Violence: On Thursday, October 22, all the schools in the Chicagoland area will mark a day of “Non-Violence.” The children will recite and sign a pledge to stay away from guns, and pray for the end of violence. Children will then bring the pledge home.
